

David J. Robinson

Principal and Founder of the Montrose Group, LLC

Few lobbying firms include staff with the experience as a state legislator, press secretary for a major city, Fortune 100 corporate communications and government relations executive, advocate, lawyer and trade association executive, but that is the experience David J. Robinson brings to clients. In addition, few lobbying firms advocate at the local, state and federal levels, as well as specialize in gaining project financing for clients.

David J. Robinson, prior to forming the Montrose Group, LLC, worked

- for a decade managing government relations practices' in large law firms;
- as a Republican member of the Ohio House of Representatives;
- on the government relations staff of Ameritech Ohio;
- as Press Secretary for Columbus Mayor Greg Lashutka, and
- as general counsel of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

David J. Robinson is a leader

- A graduate of Bowling Green State University, Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and the Ohio State University Fisher School of Business Advanced Management Program.
- Serves as an Adjunct Professor at the Ohio State University John Glenn School of Public Affairs for an economic development course.
- Author of The Electric Company to the Rescue, Saving America's Industrial Heartland Through Electric Rate Incentives, The IEDC Economic Development Journal, Fall, 2009.
- Co-Author of Innovation and Transformation in the Buckeye State, The IEDC Economic Development Journal, Spring, 2010

David J. Robinson provides bi-partisan Lobbying and Project Financing services.

- Local Government, Statehouse and Congressional Lobbying Services including public policy and government contracts advocacy
- Project Financing Services including Ohio Third Frontier Project Financing, Economic Development Incentives and Economic Development Strategy