

Dr. Keith Ewald: Project Manager, Workforce Analytics, Office of Workforce Development, Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, 2011 – current. Project manager over special workforce data initiatives, grants and research projects within and across offices and agencies. Design and production of a new series of reports on job ads and resume analytics to portray the current job market; in-demand jobs definitions and reports; data support for the Governor's Office of Workforce Transformation's Workforce Success Measure dashboard; and state project manager for the Ohio Analytics Partnership. Prior management of the state's Labor Market Information Program and the Census State Data Center.