

Michelle Comerford
Project Director
Industrial and Supply Chain Practice Leader
Biggins Lacy Shapiro & Co.

Michelle Comerford is Project Director and Industrial & Supply Chain Practice Leader for Biggins Lacy Shapiro & Co. (BLS & Co), which specializes in site selection, location economics, and incentives negotiation for corporate clients. Based in Cleveland, OH, Michelle has advised companies across a wide range of industry sectors on location decisions across North America. In her 15 year career, Michelle has directed clients in evaluating supply chain logistics, location strategy, and community/site selection alternatives, as well as due diligence, property acquisition, and other aspects of project implementation. Selected clients include Avon Products, Bimbo Bakeries, Colgate Palmolive, Fanatics, Rich Products, and Sierra Nevada Brewing Company.

Michelle is also a member of the Site Selectors Guild, the only association of the world's foremost site selection consultants, where she serves as a Special Advisor to the Board. In 2012, Michelle was named one of Cleveland Crain's Business Magazine Top Forty Under 40. Michelle holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a double major in Marketing and Logistics from John Carroll University in Cleveland, OH.

Contact Information:

Email: mcomerford@blsstrategies.com

Phone: 216-973-8872

Twitter: @mmcomerford