

Mike Longo

Mike is the Director of Lorain County's Workforce Development Agency. The Workforce Development Agency is a department of the Lorain County Board of Commissioners and is responsible for providing career services to adults and youth who access the OhioMeansJobs - American Job Center located in Lorain County.

The Workforce Development Agency was selected by the Lorain County Board of Commissioners to serve as the lead partner in the "Work Ready Lorain County" initiative which includes other key community stakeholders, including the partners of the Lorain County Growth Partnership. Since becoming a Work Ready Community Lorain County, Mike has joined the ACT State Organization Council in Ohio and serves as representative in the area of workforce development.

Mike has over 30 years of experience within the areas of Workforce Development and Human Services. He has continued to focus on developing better partnerships with the agencies and programs that are connected through the OhioMeansJobs system with the pursuit of building a more integrated workforce system for the job seekers and employers in his community.