

Paul Herdeg has served since 1994 in the Cuyahoga County Department of Development, managing housing, community development, and economic development activities. Currently Paul serves as Head of Business Intelligence and Strategy, leading the department's planning and performance reporting work across workforce innovation, economic development, and community development. Paul is active in the Ohio Conference of Community Development, serving as its President for the current year.