

Rebecca Kusner is the chief strategist at her newly launched venture, R4Workforce. She works on a variety of projects with business, philanthropy, education/training and community organizations. She has extensive experience developing and launching regional workforce projects, and in prior roles she consulted, staffed the Ohio Workforce Coalition, authored several workforce development reports, and ran workforce programs for a regional manufacturing association. She credits her experience with Sector Skills Academy for her focus on programs and systems and she is an active member of the Ohio Workforce Coalition and National Skills Coalition, where she serves on the Higher Education Advisory Panel. This year she joined the Board of the National Association of Workforce Development Professionals and the Strategic Functions Committee of her local workforce board. Rebecca has a Master of Public Administration and Graduate Certificate in Urban Economic Development from Cleveland State University and a Bachelor of Arts in Politics and Government and Sociology from Ohio Wesleyan University.