

Rich Delisio has served in the Ohio Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) program since 2009. His government contracting coaching includes serving eleven counties (Ashland, Carroll, Medina, Wayne, Summit, Stark, Jefferson, Holmes, Richland, Tuscarawas and Portage) and 270 clients.

The Ohio University PTAC program emphasizes the importance of developing business relationships and resources to understand and successfully obtain contracts in public procurement.

Rich received both his MBA and BSBA from Youngstown State University (YSU). Rich has over 25 years of Procurement Management experience, twelve of which he directed the Material Management (Purchasing) Department at YSU.

Rich's office is located at the Akron Global Business Accelerator Suite 601A, and can be reached at 330-252-0571 or delisior@ohio.edu
